

Signposting Links for Further Advice

Please find below a selection of helpful links which we have tailored to reflect the needs of our families, and their children who may have SEND or could benefit from additional social and emotional support. Each link accompanies an explanation of how it may benefit you and your child.

Support in and around South Gloucestershire:

southglos.gov.uk/health-and-social-care/care-and-support-children-families/local-offer

Local Authority information on support available and procedures.

supportiveparents.org.uk

An independent organisation offering a free, confidential and impartial service to any parent who has a concern about their child's education. Their aim is to provide you with all the information you need to understand the SEN process and improve your child's education experience.

mindyou.org.uk

South Gloucestershire's mental health and emotional wellbeing hub for young people. Advice and further signposting on a range of issues e.g. anger, anxiety, ADHD, body image, dyslexia, sleep, grief.

sglospc.org.uk

South Gloucestershire's Parents and Carers is a support group for parents and carers of children with special educational needs or disabilities. They offer informal meetings and training.

jigsawthornbury.org.uk Tel: 01454 416381

A family support service which acts as a lending library for SEN and sensory resources. There is a small lending fee required. This service is often recommended by families of North Road.

<https://www.bournstream.org/> Tel: 01454 238083

This place is often recommended by families of North Road.

It is an outdoor play and picnic site for disabled and SEN children alongside their families and friends to visit. There is a one off contribution required.

southernbrooks.org.uk Tel: 01454 868570

Offers family support and courses.

southernbrooks.org.uk/parenting-guides-and-resources

Provides parenting information and resources.