

North Road Community Primary School

History Knowledge Organiser

What if I met a great explorer or inventor?

Class: Mars - KSI

Term: Spring 2024

Vocabulary		What should we already know?
Significant / important	Of great value	Who was Isambard Kingdom Brunel. Some examples of the work of Isambard Kingdom Brunel.
Famous	Known about by many people
Inventor	A person who created a process, device or a job
Explorer	A person who explores a new or unfamiliar place
Neil Armstrong	The first astronaut who landed on the moon
Tim Peake	The first British astronaut on the International Space Station
Mary Anning	A famous fossil collector
Isambard Kingdom Brunel	A British engineer	What will I know? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> An explorer is someone who explores a new or unfamiliar place/area Who Neil Armstrong and Tim Peake are and why space exploring is so important. What Neil Armstrong did on 20th July 1969. What Tim Peake was the first British astronaut to do. Who Mary Anning was. Who Brunel was and what he accomplished. Why Neil Armstrong, Tim Peake, Mary Anning and Brunel are remembered.
Astronaut	A person trained to travel in spacecraft
Engineer	A person whose job is to design or build machines, engines, or electrical equipment, or things such as roads, railways or bridges.
Fossil	A fossil is any preserved remains, impression, or trace of any once-living thing from a past geological age.
Discovery	Finding something out for the first time

Key Questions	Timeline of Events
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> What makes someone a significant person? What are explorers and inventors and why are they important? Who are Neil Armstrong and Tim Peake and what did they achieve? What did Neil Armstrong do on 20th July 1969? What was Tim Peake the first British astronaut to do? Who was Mary Anning? Why is Mary Anning known as one of the greatest fossil hunters ever? Who was Brunel and what was his greatest achievement? Why do we remember Brunel, Mary Anning, Neil Armstrong and Tim Peake. 	Timeline of significant inventions/explorer's missions. Mary Anning – 1810 Isambard Kingdom Brunel – 1843 Neil Armstrong – 1969 Tim Peake – 2015
Historical Skills and Enquiry
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Artifacts of fossils / replica fossils / looking at photos of fossils. Interviews from Neil Armstrong and Tim Peake. 	