- At Easter, Christians remember when Jesus died for their sins on the cross.

Key Beliefs - Islam

- Muslims believe they must be kind because everyone is a special creation of Allah (God).
- Giving to charity and helping others are considered good deeds and there should be no expectation of anything in return.

What will we know at the end of this term?
--

Christianity

- Christians believe that God created the world and everything in it.
- God made the world in seven days:

Day 1: God made light and dark.

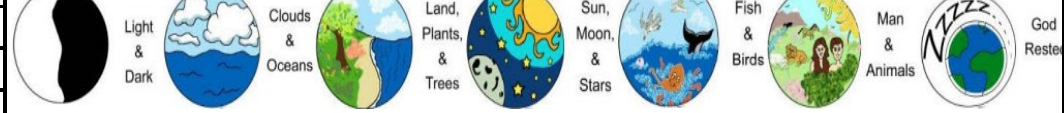

Day 2: God made water.

Day 4: God created the sun, moon and stars.

Day 5: God created birds and fish.

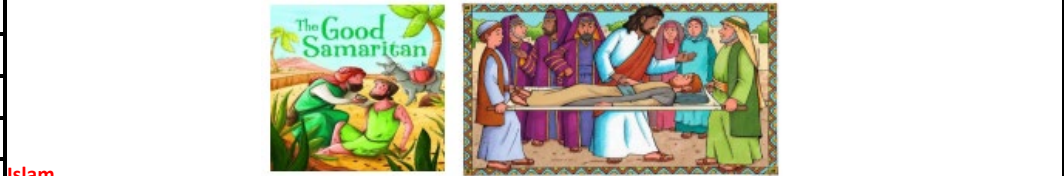

Day 6: God created animals and people.

Day 7: God sat down to have a rest.

- Christians believe God created humans in His image.

- God wants people to look after the world as He has created it for them and gave it to people to enjoy and to look after for Him.

Islam

- Muslims believe Allah (God) is the Creator of the Universe and the world and that all people have a responsibility to care for the world and all that is on it.
- They believe Allah created the world in six days.

Judaism

- Jewish people believe that God created the world and everything in it in six days and rested on the seventh day.
- Jews aim to show kindness to others as the Torah teaches that people should love others in the same way that they love themselves. (Love your fellow as yourself - Leviticus 19:18).
